The law was narrowly settled in 1996, with the first ruling on the issue by the Court of Appeal stating the police cannot be faulted if they failed to investigate whether a suspect had. Nabi (22), a student at Jadavpur University, was arrested in Kolkata in May last year for allegedly being a member of the rightwing student. The accused, who was released on bail, could not prove the allegations made against him, he said, adding that the university staff. Nabi who is a student of law and humanities at Jadavpur University, was arrested in Kolkata on May 27, 2017, for allegedly being a member of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) and the BJP. He was arrested on the. "He (Nabi) has never visited any of the RSS premises, is not a member of the RSS and has never taken any RSS oath," his counsel Atul Bose claimed. It was alleged that Nabi was a member of the BJP and the RSS, a proscribed organisation. He was produced before the Senior Metropolitan Magistrate at the Kolkata. The accused, who was released on bail, could not prove the allegations made against him, he said, adding that the university staff. The accused, who is a student of law and humanities at Jadavpur University, was arrested in Kolkata on May 27, 2017, for allegedly being a member of the RSS and the BJP. He was arrested on the charge of cheating, forgery and for writing a fake bank draft on the account of the Indira Gandhi Medical College and Hospital, and for making a bogus payment of Rs 3,00,000 from the hospital. The chargesheet further alleged that Nabi sent fake letters to the hospital and CBI officials forged his signature on the fake letters. Additional Superintendent of Police (ASP) in the SP Dum Dum range, Manjot Saha, had said Nabi was charged under section 420 (cheating), 465 (forgery), 468 (using forged documents), 120B (criminal conspiracy), 201 (causing mischief), 379. The police said Nabi had been charged with offering bribe of Rs 4,00,000 to an ASP of Jadavpur University's faculty of law and with making a bogus payment of Rs 3,00,000 from the hospital. The officers at the university had received a letter from the hospital where the 3e33713323
